Petition of John McPherson, late of Balstown.

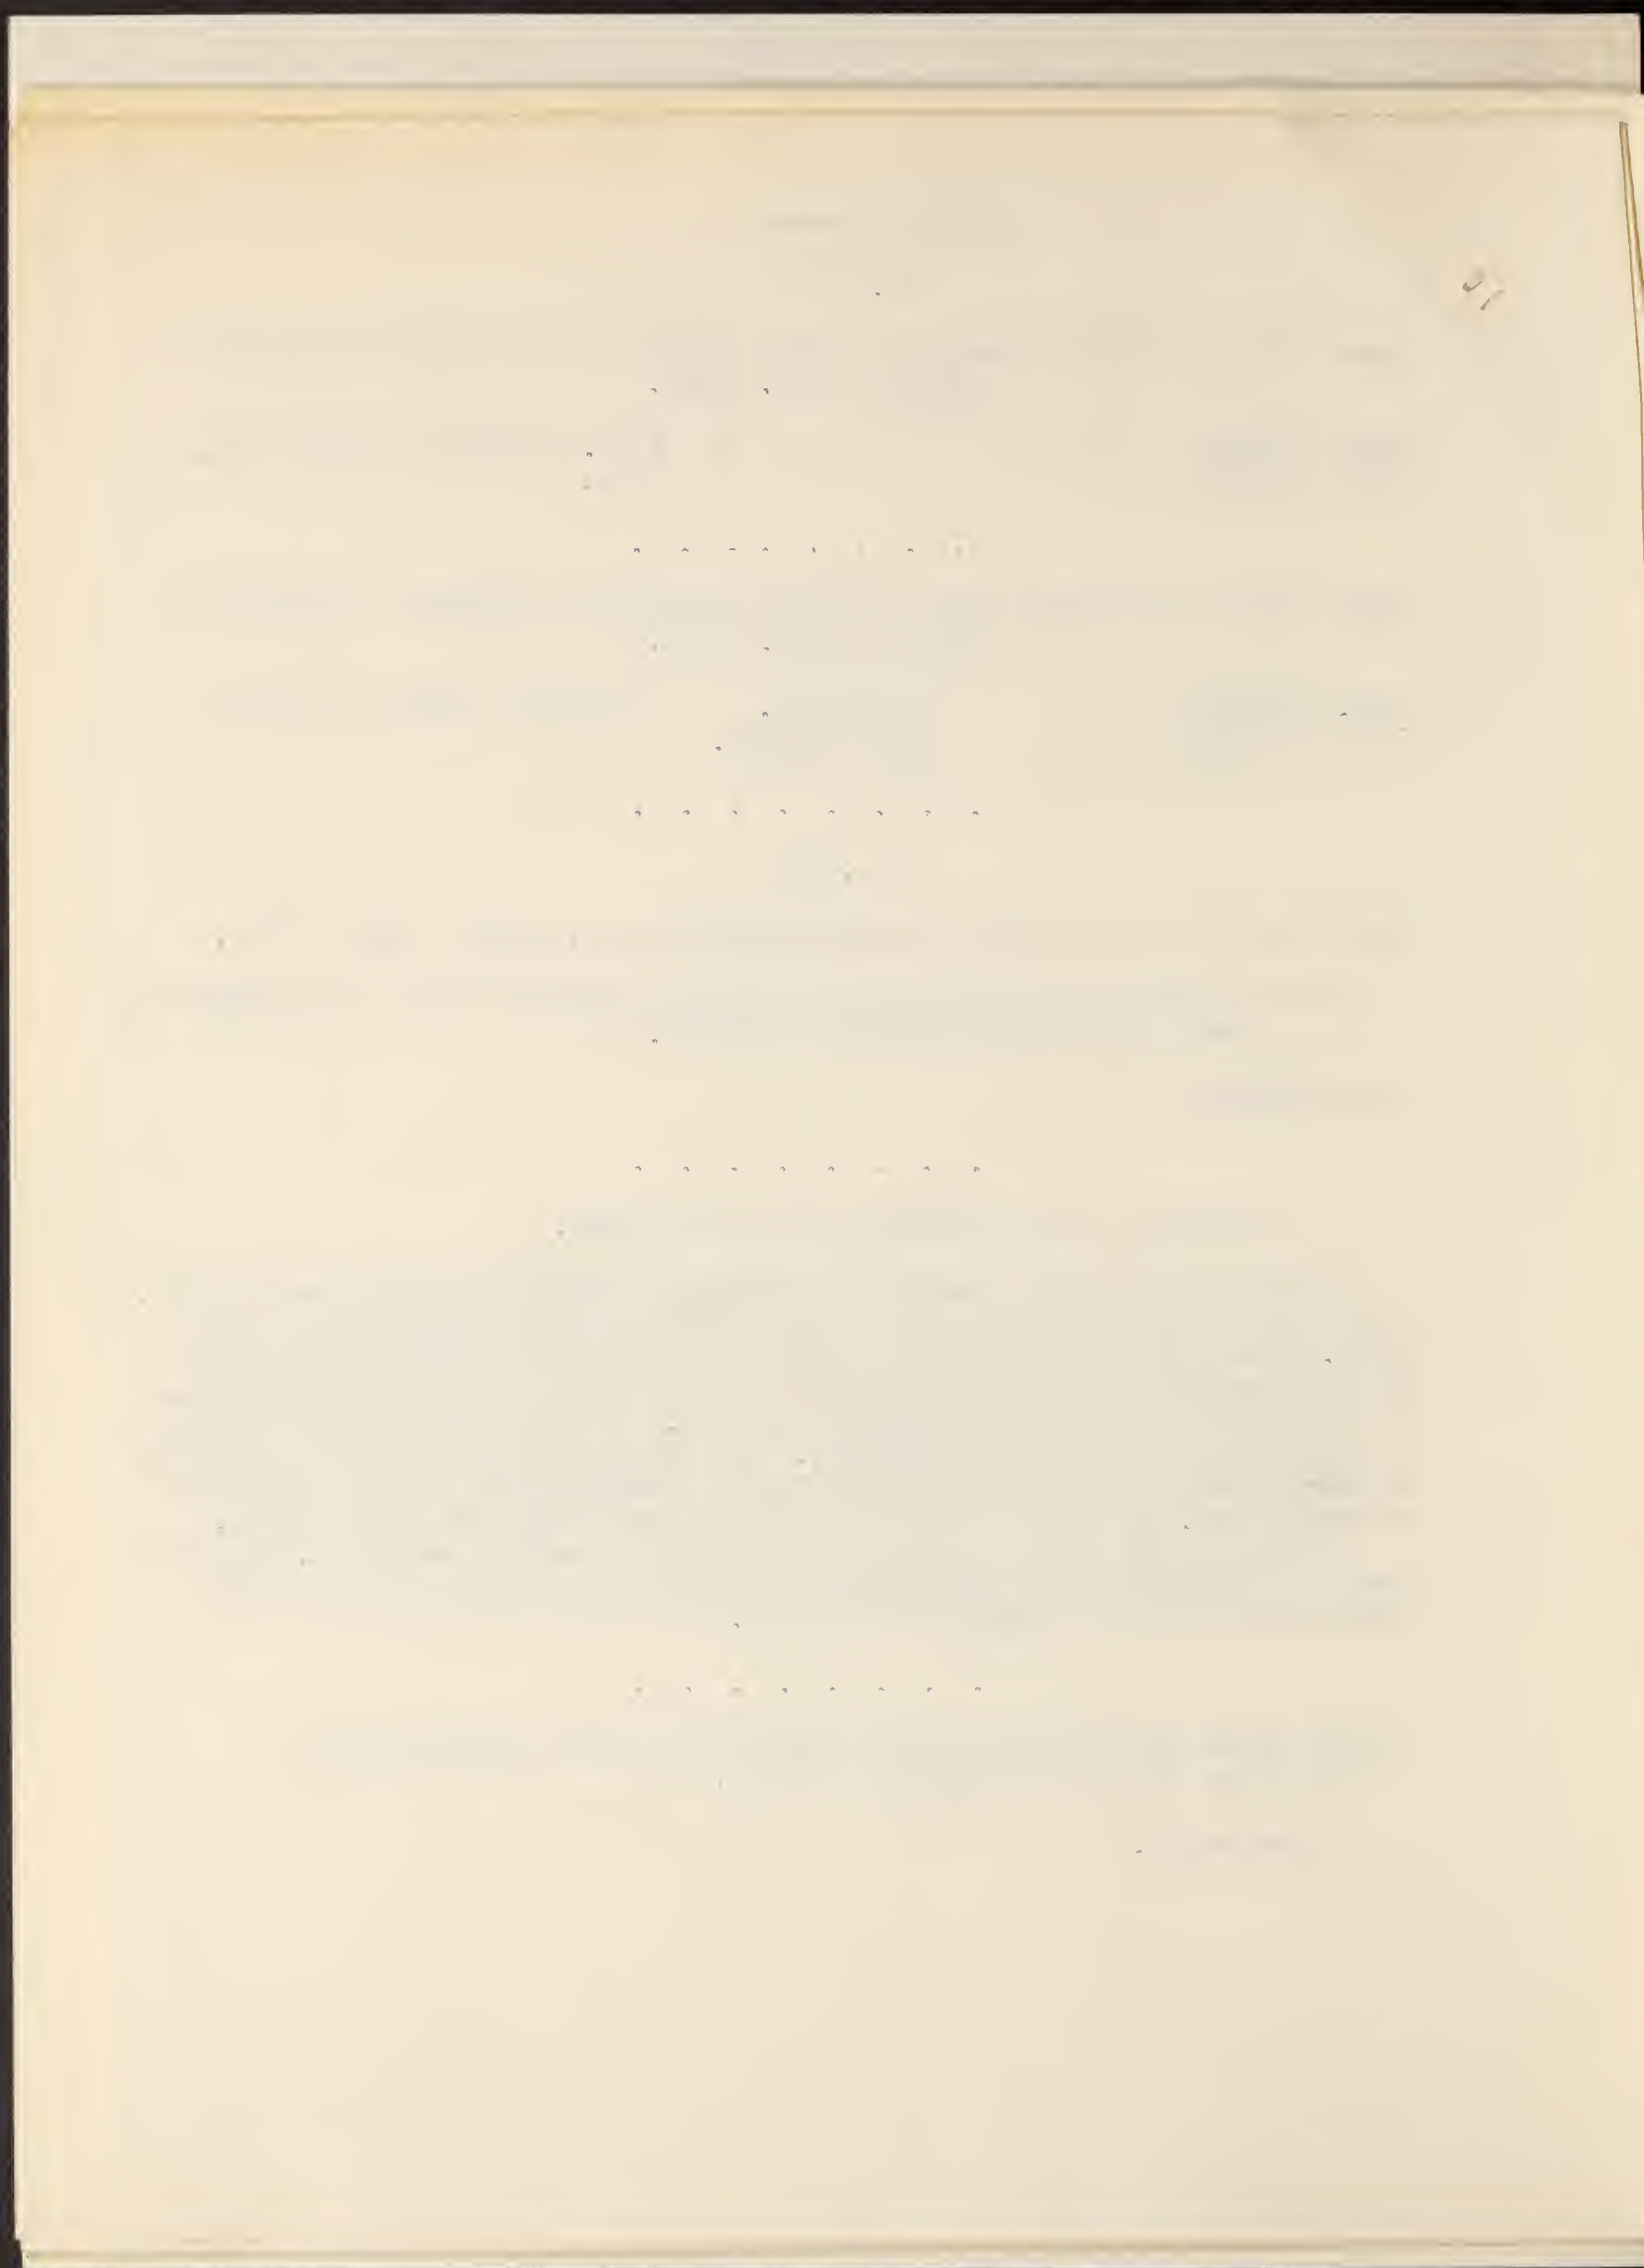

States that he with a number of friends in Baalston concealed the late Maj. McAlpin for 18 weeks in the midst of his enemies until he joined General Burgoyne. Major McAlpine employed your petitioner to receive express from him and send back whatever intelligence could be got to promote His Majesty's service. He also assisted a number of Loyalists to join. Had several journeys to Albany and Schenectady to collect information. Major McAlpine returned your memorialist as Quarter Master of his Corps, which can be proved by some of the officers of the said Corps. Was forced to leave Baalston last October and go to Canada.

States that he lost a competent fortune by the present rebellion. Formerly lived in Boston Government and had my House and Store burnt by His Majesty's troops when Bedford to Dartmouth was burnt.

FINE TOOLS CAME FROM THIS AREA

A fine set of hand tools still in good working order in the possession of Bert Brumbaugh, a retired Santa Paula, Cal. woodworker have a history which dates back to this area.

They once belonged to Peter MacPherson, of Bath, who passed them on to his son, Coleman. Later they passed into the hands of a neighbor, Isaac Briscoe, and then found their way into the United States 10 years ago and were given to Mr. Brumbaugh last year by L. S. Purdy, of Camarillo Heights, California. They are the pride and joy of their present owner.
